Antoinette Griffin

Credentials and Experience

As an Executive Director with the John Maxwell Team, Antoinette Griffin is a certified coach, speaker, trainer and facilitator. Her company, Griff Development, provides coaching for business executives, and training and facilitation for teams to excel in the areas of business-building, trust, healthy conflict, confidence and communication, leadership and goal achievement. Additionally, she specializes in working with introverts who desire to strengthen their communication, connection and leadership abilities while maintaining their naturally wired behavioral style.

Griffin worked for the City of Austin for 12 years before transitioning to the private sector as a manager in healthcare. She founded a publishing company which expanded throughout Texas, and became certified with the John Maxwell organization in 2012.

Griffin attended The University of Texas at Austin, receiving a bachelor's degree in management and is a certified Human Behavior Consultant specializing in DISC. She also serves as a faculty member for 40,000 John Maxwell Team coaches worldwide.
