Billie Johnson

Credentials and Experience

Billie Johnson, CBAP, CBA, CSM, is an expert business analysis professional who has been involved in establishing business analysis direction, processes and modeling for almost 30 years – spanning financial, manufacturing, consulting, education, government, retail and mining industries. She was an early adopter of International Institute of Business Analysis™ (IIBA®)'s Certified Business Analysis Professional™ (CBAP®) certification, receiving her CBAP certification in May 2007. She achieved the Project Management Institute's Professional in Business Analysis (PMI-PBA)® certification as soon as it was offered in July 2014. Also, she attained her Certified Business Architect (CBA®) in March 2019. Johnson has co-authored Mastering Business Analysis Standard Practices textbook with an accompanying workbook which was published in May 2019. In addition, Johnson was a review lead for the third version of "A Guide to the Business Analysis Body of Knowledge® (BABOK® Guide)" and speaks at IIBA and PMI events.

For the last ten years, she has been teaching and consulting with large organizations and Fortune companies. As a business analysis instructor, course developer, author, coach and mentor she enjoys furthering the field of business analysis by teaching those in the field with tools to face their unique problems and opportunities for organizations today.
