Marilyn Orr

Credentials and Experience

Marilyn Orr, MA, CEC, PCC, is a leadership coach with Capacity Building Coaching and a training partner on EQ-i 2.0 with Multi-Health Systems Inc. She holds her Professional Certified Coach designation with the International Coach Federation (ICF). She started what is now the ICF Atlantic Canada chapter, and recently completed a 2-year presidency of the ICF Charter Chapter of Greater Austin, Texas. For the past 15 years Orr has supported the growth and transformation of thousands of individuals and a large number of organizations across the United States and Canada. The companies include Xerox, Penasco Valley Telecommunications, Wyndham and Saskatchewan Provincial Health Authority through coaching skills training, mentor coaching and leadership development. As a highly intuitive extrovert Orr brings a lightness and freedom to her work with clients. Orr wrote and published the workbook "How Absorbent Are Your Shocks? - Everyday Resiliency Tools." She holds a bachelor's degree in psychology and a master's degree in counseling. Most recently, Orr completed a graduate certificate in executive coaching and advanced study in mentor coaching at Royal Roads University in Victoria, British Columbia.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT ACTIVITIES

In addition to the roles with the ICF, Orr has volunteered on the boards of many non-profits, which include an activity center for those with chronic mental illness, a volunteer center and a Chamber of Commerce. Currently Orr is engaged in creating collaborative opportunities with a variety of businesses in Wimberley, TX to effectively offer wellness services for organizations, individuals and couples.
