Tara Levy

Credentials and Experience

Tara Levy has been a leader in the Austin and national nonprofit communities for more than two decades and is the co-founder of Nonprofit Ombuds. She has served in every type of nonprofit role—Executive Director, program staff, board member, intern, volunteer, donor and even client, so she brings a holistic and informed perspective to her work in the sector.

Levy is an engaging and experienced partner, facilitator and problem-solver, who serves as an educator and consultant on nonprofit leadership and management and enjoys supporting nonprofit leaders in being well-prepared for their work. Through her 501t3 Consulting Firm, Levy specializes in organizational change management and pivots through strategic planning, leadership transitions and board and staff development.

Levy is an attorney and holds a J.D. from The University of Texas at Austin and a B.A. with Special Honors from UT's Plan II Honors Program.
